Important: the directions provided are a guide only, please check your route before travelling

By car

Follow the A55 across Anglesey to Holyhead. On entering Holyhead, follow the signs for the Port. At the roundabout near the entrance to the Port, turn right and then immediately left onto Turkey Shore Road.

Follow this road for about a quarter of a mile then turn right into Ffordd Tudur (4th turning on the right). Follow this road and take the first turning left into the Gwelfor Car Park.

Parking

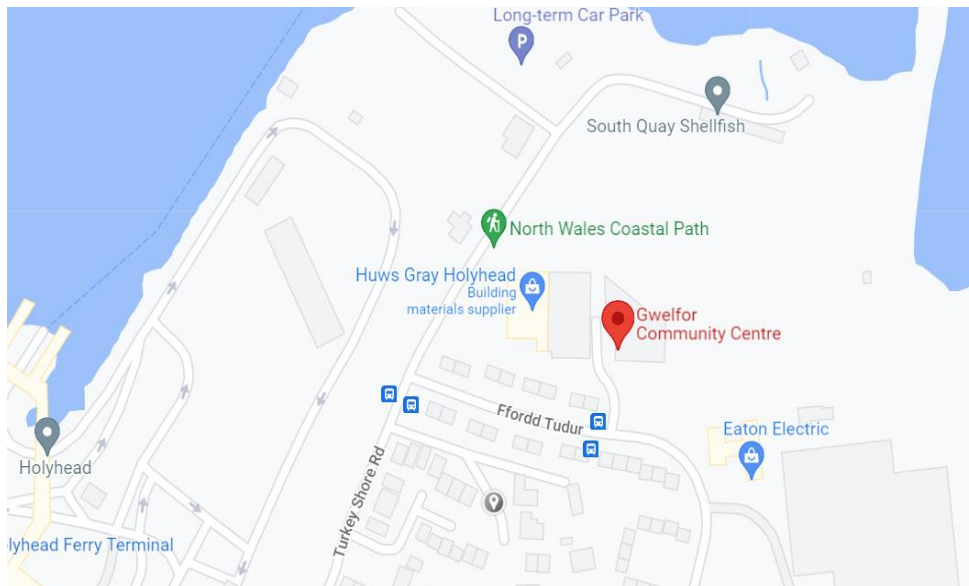

Parking is available onsite close to the door. Taxis can drop you off just outside the building.

By bus

The community centre is serviced by buses 24 and 24a. There's a stop at the bottom of the road for both about a 2-minute walk to the centre.

By train

The closest train station is Holyhead which is a 15-minute walk to the Community Centre. Exit the station and walk towards London Road. Turn left and walk along London Road, turn left again onto the A55 opposite Lidl. Continue down the A55 until you get to a roundabout.

Turn right next to The Edinburgh Castle and cross onto Turkey Shore Road, follow this road all the way along and turn right down Ffordd Tudor. Go down this road and the Community Centre is on your left.

When you arrive

Remember to bring two forms of ID with you.

The door to enter is usually closed and is heavy. If you're struggling to open the door there's a bell you can press for assistance. The reception window is on your right. Let them know you're here for a PIP assessment.

Useful info

There is a seating area for you to wait and the assessment rooms are on the same floor. There's no steps to get to your assessment and a disabled access toilet available.
